"It is a story of personal sacrifice, adventure, acceptance and rejection, tenacity, endurance, and hard work during trying times."

Clinton Hill — Asst. Director
Protective Forces (Retired)
